A collaborative approach

Bude Creative Sector Project

We are reaching out to incredible creative businesses that are based here in Bude. Can you spare a few minutes to help us?

Bude Coastal Community Team (BCCT) through its Bude Business Voice (BBV) project is trying to find out what interest there is to generate a collaborative approach to business development among businesses in the local Creative economy.

The survey will only take 5 minutes and would really help the project along.
